

PRESS RELEASE

LAST DAY FOR ACCEPTANCE OF THE SIMPLIFIED TAKEOVER BID ON NEXTRADIOTV

Paris, France, 1 February 2016 – Groupe News Participations (« GNP ») and NextRadioTV (the « Company ») remind that the acceptance period of the simplified takeover bid by GNP on the shares and warrants of the company not yet owned by GNP, which has begun on 12 January 2016, will end tonight, 1 February 2016.

The offer price is 37 euros per share and 23.28 euros per warrant (the « Bid »).

The Bid is made under the simplified procedure without centralization and there will be no reopening of the Bid.

As of 29/01/2016, GNP owns directly and indirectly 90.42% of the shares and at least 93.65% of the voting rights of the Company.

The price for the shares implies a premium of 30.3% based on the volume weighted 6 months average prior to the announcement of the Bid and the financial terms of the Bid have been considered fair by the firm Ricol Lasteyrie, appointed as independent expert by the Company, including in the case of a potential squeeze-out. The board of directors of the Company has also unanimously recommended to the shareholders and warrant-holders to tender their securities.

The shareholders and warrant-holders that want to accept the Bid have to issue a sale order to their financial intermediary, depositary of their securities, at the latest today, last day for acceptance of the Bid, and sufficiently in advance to allow for its execution before market close. Payment will occur two trading days following execution of the order.

The access to any document related to the Bid might be subject to legal restrictions in certain jurisdictions. Non-compliance with these restrictions may constitute a violation of applicable laws and regulations in certain jurisdictions. Groupe News Participations and NextRadioTV decline any responsibility in case of violation by any person of applicable legal restrictions..

It is recommended that the shareholders and other investors read the documents related to the Bid before taking any decision related to the Bid.
